

PERCY STANTON

HACKETTSTOWN

Funeral services were held Saturday for Percy A. Stanton, 83, of 29 Riverside Gardens, who was pronounced dead on arrival June 17 at Hackettstown Community Hospital.

A police lieutenant for the city of Newark, he retired in 1955. He was formerly a security guard for Hahnes and Company in Newark. His last employment was with the Hackettstown Parking Authority for about six years.

Born in Warwick, N.Y., he lived in Newark and Long Valley before moving to Hackettstown 10 years ago.

He was a member of Vailsburg Lodge 278, F&AM, Newark; Salaam Temple, Livingston; Superior Officers Association, Newark, and the Spruce Run Trotting Pony Association.

His wife, Oril, died in 1973.

Survivors include a son, Robert, of Harrington Park; three stepdaughters, Mrs. Elmer Heinecke of Seatucket, Long Island, N.Y.; Mrs. William Heller of River Vale, and Mrs. William E. Philhower of Califon; seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Services were at the Coughlin Funeral Home, Califon.

Interment was in Lower Valley Union Cemetery.
