

OBITUARY

Fred W. Starr

Fred W. Starr, 72, died Feb. 10, at his home in Hackettstown.

Born Oct. 9, 1926 at Forty

Fort, Pa., he was a son of the late Wilbur Michael and Jane Peck Starr.

He was a resident of Hackettstown since 1952 coming from Pennsylvania.

He was a graduate of Millersville State Teachers College in 1950. He taught industrial Arts in Hackettstown for 1 year. He then worked for Bell Labs in Whippany for 30 years, and then worked for BellCore in Morristown for 2 years, retiring in 1986.

He was in the Army Air Corp during World War II.

He was an active member of the Trinity United Methodist Church in Hackettstown. He was a former Boy Scout leader, a former member of the Hackettstown Board of Education (for 4 years). He was an avid fly fisherman.

He was predeceased by a brother, Robert P., in 1998.

He is survived by his wife of 48 years, Miriam W. at home; three daughters Deborah Starr Tuxhorn of Port Murray, Gail S. Rector of Silver Spring of Maryland, Melinda Starr-Pfahler of Hackettstown; and six grandchildren.

A Celebration of Life Service was held at Trinity United Methodist Church in Hackettstown.

Interment was private.

Arrangements were made by Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettstown.

Donations to the Trinity United Methodist Church, Building Fund, 213 Main St., Hackettstown, N.J. 07840.

The Star-Gazette: February 18, 1999

NAME: Fred W. Starr

DATE OF DEATH: February 10, 1999