

VINTON STEINMANN

OXFORD — Funeral services were held Saturday for Vinton S. Steinmann, 57, of Jane's Chapel Road who died March 11 at Hackettstown Community Hospital, where he had been a patient one week.

Born Aug. 21, 1918 in Mt. Bethal, he was a son of Mrs. Marie Clawson Steinmann of Oxford and the late Sophus Steinmann.

He was a carpenter and belonged to Local 0399 Phillipsburg, of the carpenter's union. He was a member of the Methodist Star Parish.

Survivors include his widow, the former Harriet Yates; a son Vinton S. Jr., at home; two daughters, Mrs. Joyce Ann Davies of Wheeling, Ill., and Mrs. Judith H. Perhoples of Painted Post, N.Y.; a brother, Vernet A., and two sisters, Mrs. Ethel Lowery and Mrs. Madeleine Yates, all of Oxford, and two grandsons.

Services were at the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown, conducted by Rev. Michael Crigger of the Star Parish.

Interment was in Pequest Union Cemetery, Great Meadows.

Star-Gazette,
March 18, 1976

OBITUARY: Vinton Steinmann
Date of Death,
March 11, 1976