

ESTON TICKNER

HACKETTSTOWN — Eston Tickner, 50, of 350 Willow Grove St., Hackettstown, died Sunday night in the Morristown Memorial Hospital.

Born Oct. 30, 1913, in Tioga County, Pa., he was a son of Harry Tickner of Mansfield, Pa., and the late Edna Garrison Tickner.

Mr. Tickner moved to Hackettstown in 1952 from Union Center, N.Y. He owned and operated Tickner's Farm Supply in Hackettstown.

He was a member of First Presbyterian Church, Hackettstown.

Survivors include his widow, Ruth Chasey Tickner; a son, Charles, at home; a daughter, Mrs. George Coleman Jr., Newtown, Pa.; a brother, Louis, Mansfield; three sisters, Mrs. Almon Kent, Horseheads, N. Y.; Mrs. George Sterling, Pine City, N.Y., and Mrs. George McCormack, Williamsport, and a grandchild.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown.

The Washington Star: February 13, 1964

NAME: Eston Tickner

DATE OF DEATH: February 9, 1964