

Frances E. Tierney

A Mass of Christian Burial was said for Frances E. Tierney, 89, of Hackettstown, who died Oct. 3 at Hackettstown Community Hospital.

She was born Frances Grogan in Netcong, and lived throughout her life in Hackettstown.

She was employed as a sales clerk in the Genevieve Clothing Shop in Hackettstown, retiring many years ago.

She was a member of St. Mary's Church of the Assumption.

Her husband, Arthur Tierney, died in 1958.

Surviving are a son, Bert, with whom she lived; a sister, Winnie Ruska of Bellville; two grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

Interment was in Union Cemetery, Hackettstown. The Cochran

STAR-GAZETTE

October 12, 1989

Frances E. Tierney

Date of death: October 3, 1989