

Service held for Miss Tighe

TRENTON — Funeral services were held here Saturday for Miss Jane A. Tighe, 84, a former Hackettstown resident.

She died Thursday at West Jersey Hospital, Voorhees Township, after a short illness.

Born July 1, 1893, in Trenton, she was a daughter of the late James and Mary E.

Entwhistle Tighe. She was a retired employee of the Trenton Health Department.

Miss Tighe was a sister-in-law of Edward W. Kilpatrick of 409 Church St., Hackettstown, and she resided at that address about 15 years until about four months ago.

Funeral services were held from the Mullen Funeral Home here Saturday morning with a Mass of Christian Burial celebrated in St. Anthony's Church. Burial was in St. John's Cemetery, Trenton.
