

V. Trowbridge

WASHINGTON — Mrs. Valerie Trowbridge of 104 N. Prospect St., died last week in United Hospitals, Newark, after a long illness.

Born May 29, 1917 in Hazleton, Pa., Mrs. Trowbridge was the daughter of Joseph and Bella Rasimovicz. She moved here a year ago from Hackettstown.

She is survived by her husband, Clyde; two sons, Eugene of Stroudsburg, Pa., and Lewis of West Belmar; a daughter, Mrs. Roberta Petty of Washington; a sister, Mrs. Mildred Cregge of Bloomfield; her father, Joseph Rasimovicz of Bloomfield; and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted last Saturday at the Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettstown by the Rev. Stephen Bielen of St. Mary's Church of the Assumption. Interment was in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Star-Gazette,

July 27, 1978.

OBITUARY: Valerie Trowbridge.

Date of Death, unknown.