

Mildred M. Tynan

Services were held for Mildred M. Tynan, 84, of Hackettstown, who died Oct. 23 at the Andover Intermediate Care Center, Andover.

She was born Mildred Smith in Hackettstown, where she lived all her life.

Mrs. Tynan was a homemaker. She was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Hackettstown Fire Department.

---

Her husband, Norman P. Tynan, died in 1961.

She is survived by one son, Norman P. Tynan Jr. of Hackettstown; two daughters, Henrietta M. Ackerman of Long Valley and Elizabeth Claus of Omaha, Neb.; two sisters, Evelyn Smith of Parsippany and Virginia Opanowich of Hackettstown; 10 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Interment was in Union Cemetery, Hackettstown. The Cochran Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

---

The Star-Gazette: October 31, 1991

NAME: Mildred M. (Smith) Tynan

DATE OF DEATH: October 23, 1991