

MILTON J. TYNAN

HACKETTSTOWN — Funeral services for Milton J. Tynan, 64, of 304 West Baldwin street, were held Tuesday afternoon at the Cochran Funeral Home. The Hackettstown Fire Department held services Monday night at the funeral home.

Mr. Tynan died Saturday following a long illness at Dover General Hospital.

He retired last year after being employed as a machinist for 20 years at the Allen Wood Mine, Mine Hill.

The son of the late John J. and Henrietta Parks Tynan, he was born Sept. 10, 1899 in Hackettstown.

Mr. Tynan belonged to the Cataract Hose Co.; the Exempt Firemen's Association of New Jersey, Dover Local 282, United Steel Workers of America, and the First Presbyterian Church, Hackettstown.

He is survived by his widow, the former Ida Hayes; a son, Edwin, of Tranquility; a daughter, Mrs. Arlene Saunders, of Hackettstown; two brothers, John and Frank, both Hackettstown, and six grandchildren.

The Washington Star : 27 February, 1964

NAME: Milton J. Tynan

DATE OF DEATH: