

ington

FRANK ULTZ

Services were conducted Saturday at 10 a. m. at the Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettstown for Frank Ultz, 62, of 144 East Prospect Avenue, Hackettstown, who died on December 20 at Morristown Memorial Hospital. The Rev. Michael Cramer of Tranquillity Methodist Church officiated. Interment was in Tranquillity Cemetery.

Born September 2, 1910, in Port Chester, N. Y., Mr. Ultz was a son of the late Frank and Theresa Pelda Ultz.

A machine maintenance man for the West Orange Paper Mills in Hackettstown for 25 years, Mr. Ultz was a U. S. Army Veteran of World War II.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Ella Rost Ultz; a son, Lynn Frank, at home; and two sisters, Miss Theresa Ultz and Miss Ann Ultz, both of Tucson, Ariz.

Hackettstown Gazette,
December 28, 1972

OBITUARY: Frank Ultz
Date of Death,
December 20, 1972