

OBITUARY

MICHAEL WHALEN.

Michael Whalen passed away at his home Sunday after an illness of five weeks duration. He was fifty-six years of age. all of which were lived in Hackettstown, where he was employed by the D. L. & W. Railroad.

His survivors are his wife, one daughter, two half-brothers James and Leo Grogan, one half-sister. Mrs. Fred Somerindyke.

He was a member of St. Mary's Church of the Assumption, where High Requiem Mass was said by Father Joseph Sergel on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock. Interment was in Union Cemetery.

The Hackettstown Gazette: September 16, 1932

NAME: Whalen, Michael

DATE OF DEATH: September 11, 1932