

OBITUARY

Frank Wheeler

Frank Wheeler, 82, of Hackettstown died April 8 at Hackettstown Community Hospital.

Born in Frelinghuysen Township, he was the son of the late George M. and Bessie Green Wheeler. He lived in Hackettstown all his life.

He was employed by the New Jersey Fish and Game Commission at the former Charles O. Hayward Fish Hatchery in Hackettstown for 46 years before retiring in 1975.

Mr. Wheeler was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church in Hackettstown and the Hackettstown Historical Society.

He is survived by his wife, Leola E.; a daughter, Marilyn W. Hodge of Randolph; a brother, Louis of Mount Bethel, Pa.; three sisters, Nellie Everitt and Carolyn Smith, both of New Port Richey, Fla., and Thelma Stidworthy of Gazdon, Ala.; and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were on April 12 at 11 a.m. at the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown. Interment was in Cedar Ridge Cemetery, Blairstown.

The Star-Gazette: April 15, 1993

NAME: Frank Wheeler

DATE OF DEATH: April 8, 1993