

OBITUARY

27 in Andover Nursing Home in Andover.

Born April 23, 1910, in Jefferson County, Ala., he was a son of the late Harden and Sarah White. He lived in Hackettstown for seven years, moving from Morris Plains.

He was a tow motor operator for Eden Paper Mill for 27 years. Prior to that he worked for Jersey Central Railroad as a conductor.

He is survived by his wife, the former Elsie Bertelson; a son, Gary of Papillion, Neb.; a daughter, Arlene Lovegrove of Hackettstown; a sister, Ruth Mancino of Pinson, Ala.; six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Services were held in Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown. Burial was private.

Joseph White

HACKETTSTOWN — Joseph S. White, 87, died Tuesday, Jan.

The Star-Gazette: February 5, 1998

NAME: Joseph White

DATE OF DEATH: January 27, 1998