

Olive Wildrick

HACKETTSTOWN — Olive Wildrick died Wednesday at Hackettstown Community Hospital after a short illness. She was 93.

Born in Great Meadows, she lived there before moving here 53 years ago.

She was a lifetime member of the Waterloo Methodist Church.

Mrs. Wildrick is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Mildred Titton, here; three granddaughters; eight great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are by Scala Memorial, 124 High St., here.

10969.16.12

The Record
February 12, 1982

OBITUARY:
Olive Wildrick
Date of death,
February 3, 1982

Olive Wildrick

Olive Wildrick, 93, of East Prospect Avenue, Hackettstown, died Thursday at Hackettstown Community Hospital following a brief illness. DIED 2-12-1982

She was born Aug. 17, 1888 in Great Meadows and resided there prior to moving to Hackettstown 53 years ago. She was a life member of the Waterloo Methodist Church, Byram.

Mrs. Wildrick is survived by a daughter, Mildred Titton of Hackettstown, three granddaughters, eight great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, 1 p.m. in the Scala Memorial Home, 124 High St., Hackettstown.

Burial at the Pequest Union Cemetery in Great Meadows.

Friends may call Friday from 7-9 p.m. DA 2-12-1982

Her husband was the late James W. Wildrick, who died in 1968.

Daily Advance
February 12, 1982

OBITUARY:
Olive Wildrick
Date of death,
February 3, 1982