

Carol A. Wiley

Carol A. Wiley, 71, of Punta Gorda, Florida went home to be with the Lord, Friday, March 7, 2008 at Tidewell Hospice in Port Charlotte Fla. after a short illness.

Born: July 11, 1936 in Hackettstown. She was the daughter of Katherine Ader and the late Clarence Ader.

Personal: She enjoyed knitting, making clothes for children's orphanages and many other crafts.

Memberships: She was a member of the Holy Trinity Presbyterian Church in North Fort Myers Florida. She was a former member of the Hackettstown Rescue Squad Ladies Auxiliary.

Survivors: She is survived by her daughter, Kay Tynan and her husband Michael of Hackettstown; grandchildren, Jennifer Van Doren and her husband, William of Mountain Lake, Eric Tynan and Mark Tynan both of Hackettstown, Dawn Creed of Frenchtown, Billy Hazelton and his wife Laura of Belvidere and Jessica Fox of Phillipsburg; five Great Grandchildren and 1 Step Great Granddaughter.

She was preceded in death by her husband, William S. Wiley and daughter, Kim.

Services: The ICS Cremation Society Fort Myers Florida was in charge of arrangements. Services will be private.

Memorials: The family requests memorials to Tidewell Hospice and Palliative Care 1144 Veronica Street Port Charlotte, Florida 33952.

The Express-Times: March 12, 2008

NAME: Wiley, Carol A. (Ader)

DATE OF DEATH: March 2, 2008