

JOHN P. WILEY

HACKETTSTOWN — Services will be held today (Thursday) at 2 p.m. for John P. Wiley, 73-year-old retired foreman at the New Jersey State Fish Hatchery in Hackettstown. Rites will be conducted by the Rev. Allan McKinnon at the Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettstown with interment at Hackettstown Union Cemetery. He died Monday at Forest Manor Retirement Home in Hope after a brief illness.

Born on December 10, 1899, in Changewater, Mr. Wiley retired in 1962 after 50 years of employment at the Fish Hatchery. He was of the Presbyterian faith.

Survivors are a son, William S. of Hackettstown; two grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Star-Gazette,
August 2, 1973

OBITUARY: John P. Wiley
Date of Death,
July 30, 1973