

OBITUARY

Tuesday, Feb 16, 1915

Special to The Evening Star:

Hackettstown, Feb. 16 -- The Funeral of Mrs. Catherine Ann Willever, widow of the late Abram Willever, will be held at the Trinty M.E.Church tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Willever died Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs Rebecca Vogel, in Lafayette Street, her death came as a result of the infirmities of old age, she had been gradually sinking for the past two years, but was able to be around until Saturday, Feb 6, when she suffered a slight stroke of paralysis and was helpless from then until the end came.

She was born at Bridgeville, N.J., eighty-five years ago, and was the daughter of the late Rev. Henry C. Major. She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Wm. Caskey, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Alfred Johnson, Mrs. Rebecca Vogel, Mrs. Thomas Nolan and J. Stewart Wllever, all of this place, also two sisters, Mrs. Mary Cool of Harmony; Mrs. Maria Tims of this place, and one brother Wm. H. Major of Bridgeville. Mrs. Willever is also survived by twenty-six grandchildren, forty six great grandchildren and five great great grandchildren. Rev. Samuel Jackson will officiate. Burial will be in Union Cemetery.

Sat. 6 Feb- Suffered stroke Mon, 15 Feb-Died

Tue. 16 Feb-Obituary in Evening Star

Wed 17 Feb-Funeral Service, Trinity M. E. Church, The Rev. Samuel T. Jackson, officiating Burial, Union Cemetery.

Note: Her Husband was a Saddle-Back Circuit Rider Methodist Minister.

Had family in Newark

The Evening Star, Hackettstown ,Warren County, New Jersey

NAME: Catherine Ann (Major) Willever

DATE OF DEATH: February 15, 1915