

OBITUARY

Patricia Ann Willever

Patricia Ann Willever, 74, of Washington Borough, died Friday, Feb. 6, 2009 at home.

Patricia was born Aug. 30, 1934 in Washington, the daughter of the late Walter I. and the late Lena H. (Sherman) Willever. She graduated in 1951 from Washington High School. Patricia was employed with Lackawanna Railroad from 1949-1960 as a secretary to the Vice President and General Council. She then worked from 1960-1996 for Valley Federal Bank, Easton. Her final employer from 1996 until her retirement in 1999 was Richard Shaplin Investments, Easton. She was a member of the Women's Society of the United Methodist Church, and the Washington Chapter No. 136, Order of the Eastern Star of NJ.

Patricia was deeply faithful. Her family was involved in the Lackawanna railroad for many generations.

Patricia is survived by her brother, John Willever of Washington Borough, and several cousins.

A funeral service was held at United Methodist Church of Washington. Interment was in Musconetcong Valley Cemetery, Hampton.

Arrangements were by DeVoe Funeral Service, Inc., Washington.
