

MRS. WALTER WILSON

Eliza Wilson

HACKETTSTOWN —

Funeral services were held Tuesday for Eliza A. Wilson, 101, of 644 Willow Grove St., who died at Hackettstown Community Hospital following a short illness.

Mrs. Wilson was born in Blairstown. She lived most of her life in Hackettstown, moving here from Blairstown.

She was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church of Hackettstown, the United Methodist Women and The Friendly Bible Class of the church.

Mrs. Wilson is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Minnie Paddock of Hackettstown, Mrs. Lydia Beatty of Andover and Mrs. Eleanor Parks of Sebring, Fla.; one brother, Theodore Edmonds of Blairstown R.D.; 11 grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren; and seven great-great-grandchildren.

Interment was in Hackettstown Union Cemetery. Arrangements were made by the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown.

The family requests contributions be made to the Trinity United Methodist Church Organ Fund in her name.

The Forum
September 5, 1979

OBITUARY: Mrs. Walter Wilson
Date of Death, August 31, 1979