

OBITUARY

Gloria "Corky" Wilson

Gloria "Corky" Wilson of Hackettstown died March 19 at Hackettstown Community Hospital. She was 77.

Born on Oct. 21, 1925 in Netcong, she was the daughter of the late Willis and Mabel Hock Richards. She lived most of her life in Hackettstown.

She was a homemaker.

She was a former member of the Methodist Church in the Glen, Netcong, and was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion, Blue Ridge Post 164, Hackettstown.

Her husband, Woodrow Wilson, died in 1999.

She is survived by two sons, Thomas Wilson of Hackettstown and Glenn "Waz" Wilson of East Stroudsburg, Pa.; a step-son, Woodrow "Skip" Wilson of Belvidere; two brothers, Willis Richards of Buttzville and Glenn Richards of Climax Springs, Mo.; three sisters, Metty Kishpaugh of Missouri; Wanda Holmes of Budd Lake and Jean Still of Netcong; eight grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren.

Services and arrangements were at Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown. Burial was at Port Murray Cemetery.

---

The Star-Gazette: March 27, 2003

NAME: Gloria "Corky" Wilson

DATE OF DEATH: March 19, 2003