

ettstown.

Florence K. Winter

WASHINGTON TWP. — Florence K. Winter, 81, died Saturday at Hackettstown Community Hospital following a long illness.

She was born in St. John's, Newfoundland, and lived in New York before moving to Washington Township 3½ months ago.

Mrs. Winter was a physiotherapist at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York for many years before retiring 10 years ago.

An Army veteran of World War II, she served in the European, African and Middle Eastern campaigns.

She was a member of All Saints Episcopal Church, New York, and the Old Rhodan Association, Glenlg, Pa.

Surviving is a niece, Florence Meek, Norwalk, Conn.

Arrangements are by Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown.

Daily Record
October 20, 1966

OBITUARY
Florence K. Winter
Date of Death
October 25, 1966

Cat. No. 141363