

Willie Wolter

HACKETTSTOWN — Willie E.H. Wolter, 92, formerly of Huntington Station, N.Y., died Friday, July 25, in Hackettstown Community Hospital.

Born July 30, 1904, in Ellerbek, Germany, he was a son of the late August and Margareta Wolter. He lived in Hackettstown after moving from Huntington Station.

He was employed as a carpenter by Scheffler and Peskor Contractors in Long Island, N.Y., retiring many years ago. As a young man in Germany, he was trained as a ship's carpenter in Kiel. In 1928 he immigrated to the U.S. and settled in New York City, where he began a career as a finish carpenter.

He was actively involved in gymnastics as a member of the Kieler Turnverein, and his interests included singing in the Liederkrantz Society of New York City, dancing, gardening and stamp collecting.

He and his wife, the former Erna Rohwer, observed their 67th wedding anniversary July 5.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two sons, Willie of Venice, Fla., and Karl of Williamston, Mich.; a daughter, Annamarie Hynn of Hackettstown; a sister, Marga Gerken of Kiel; eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Memorial services were held in Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown. Burial was private.

The family requests memorials to the charity of one's choice.
