

G. ARNOLD WRIGHT

Graveside services were held Tuesday morning in the Pequest Union Cemetery for G. Arnold Wright, 74, Belvidere R.D., who died Saturday in the Warren Hospital where he was a patient for a day.

Memorial services were held last night in the United Presbyterian Church, Belvidere, of which he was a member.

A retired architectural engineer, he was formerly associated with the Woolsulate Co. Clifton.

A native of Morristown, he was a son of the late John and Sarah Brown Wright. He had lived in the Belvidere area since 1944, moving from Springfield.

He was a member of the Centennial Lodge 190, F&AM, Milburn.

Survivors include his widow, the former Olive Weed; three brothers, Horace, Califon, Clifford, Plantation, Fla., and Burton, Popka, Fla.

Arrangements were made by the MacFadden Funeral Home, Belvidere.

Star-Gazette,
June 7, 1973

OBITUARY: G. Arnold Wright
Date of Death,
June 2, 1973