

THOMAS P. YEARSLEY
HACKETTSTOWN —

Services were held Monday morning for Thomas P. Yearsley, 64, of 209 Parkway Drive, who died Friday at Hackettstown Community Hospital after a short illness.

Born in Blakeslee, Pa., he had lived in Hackettstown the past 21 years. He retired in 1971 as a shipping and receiving clerk at M&M-Mars, Hackettstown candy firm.

He was a member of St. Mary's Church of the Assumption and the church school PTA.

Survivors are his wife, the former Eleanor Hadley, at home; three daughters, Mrs. Helen Bartholomey of Hackettstown, Mrs. Judith Gilliam of Richmond, Va., and Miss Annie Yearsley, at home; a sister, Mrs. Theresa Sawko of Scranton, Pa., and two grandchildren.

Funeral services Monday were held from the Scala Funeral Home, 124 High St., with a Mass of Christian Burial celebrated at St. Mary's Church.

Burial was in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Star-Gazette,
February 9, 1978.

Obituary;
Thomas P. Yearsley,
Date of Death, January 5, 1978