

Boy killed in crash

ALLAMUCHY TWP. — A 17-year-old boy was killed in a collision on Route 517 last Thursday.

Erik L. Young, of Hackettstown, was pronounced dead at Morristown Memorial Hospital after the head-on collision occurring at 6:35 a.m. Andrew Hibler, 64, of Hackettstown was admitted to Morristown Memorial Hospital with a fractured hip. Both drivers were transported to the hospital by MediVac helicopter.

Young was travelling northbound on Route 517 with his 1989 Hyundai and collided head-on with Hibler's Ford wagon, which was travelling southbound on Route 517. The collision was in the southbound lane of Route 517. The accident is still under investigation by Trooper George Brewer of the Hope State Police Barracks.
